CLANDESTINE SERVICES REVIEW NO. 18

23 September - 4 October 1957

OBJECTIVE: To provide familiarization with (1) the Clandestine Services' functional structure, current mission, operational programs, and support facilities; (2) other Agency offices and their capacity to support the Clandestine Services. Emphasis will be on the headquarters processes of the Clandestine Services and how they apply to operations. To this end the functional as opposed to the organizational approach will be used in the presentation of the course.

Critiques of Presentations, CSR #18

As you fill out this critique please keep in mind the objectives of the CSR: "To provide familiarization with (1) the Clandestine Services' functional structure, current mission, operational programs, and support facilities; (2) other Agency offices and their capacity to support the Clandestine Services."

This form contains two sections: first, a section for rating each of the presentations; and second, a section for your comments.

We should like to encourage you to make your rating on a daily basis.

The critique covering the first week will be due on 30 September at 1300. We will return this form to you on 4 October for your use in preparing the final critique. The rating sheets for the first and second week as well as the final critique will all be due on 4 October.

Section I. Ratings In this section the presentations are listed in the same sequence as in the schedule. Using the system below, please rate the degree which each element contributed to your understanding of the subject.

For some of you, a particular presentation may add little to the knowledge you have gained from experience or from previous courses. If such is the case, check the "X" category and in addition please judge the element's value for people without your background by marking one of the "A" to "E" categories.

If you judge that the element	Place a check under
was generally inadequate .	A
was weak , though of some value.	B
was generally adequate , though having weak spots.	C
was very adequate - only a few minor changes needed	D
was outstanding - little, if any, change needed.	E
